This form is used to request/appeal an update to your financial aid for one of the following reasons:

1. You want to reinstate your aid.
2. You want to cancel your aid.
3. You had extenuating circumstances that caused issues with your financial aid.

Adjustments will not be made to your financial aid after the end of the second week of the term (census date), unless circumstances were beyond your control. If you are requesting an increase after you have already received financial aid you must include a written statement explaining why you registered late. Only extenuating circumstances will be considered. Decisions made by this Committee after review by the Financial Aid Director, are final.

ENROLLMENT STATUS:

Reduction of credits will decrease aid eligibility.
