Upon review of your verification documents, or due to a FAFSA rejection, we need to confirm the value of your assets. Please follow the guidance provided below to assist you in providing this information. Please complete ALL information below as it was on the date you first filed the 2021-2022 FAFSA.

- Refer to you and your parents’/spouse’s 2019 federal tax return. If a federal tax return form 1040 was filed, check for dollar amounts listed on lines 2a, 2b, 3b and Schedule 1 lines 12, 13, 17, or 18. If there is an amount on any of these lines, it is an indication of potential assets to be reported on the FAFSA. Please list the dollar amount of any assets associated with the above line numbers as of the date the FAFSA was completed.
- NOTE: The dollar amount listed on the 1040 is NOT the same as asset net worth you list below. Net worth means current value minus debt. If you have no amounts please write zero (0) in the boxes provided below, leaving no blanks.
