What is a student budget/cost of attendance (COA)? The cost of attendance is the cornerstone of establishing a student's financial need, as it sets a limit on the total aid that a student may receive for the purposes of Campus-Based Programs and Stafford/PLUS loans, and is one of the basic components of the Pell Grant Calculation. The cost of attendance for a student is an ESTIMATE of that student's educational expenses for their period of enrollment. Cost of attendance varies from school to school.

How does CCC calculate COA?

Tuition & Fees Calculations (full time calculation)

Tuition: $112 per credit x 15 credits = $1680 tuition only

Fees: $11.00 per credit x 15 credits = $165.00

General Fee: $30 per term

Books - As recommended by the federal government's guidelines.

Room and Board - CCC is considered a commuter campus. Room and board are based on the cost of an apartment located within Clackamas County, as well as utilities and food. This is based on a coed situation. Documentation will be required if a student believes that his/her costs exceed the budget estimation.

Transportation - Transportation is for gas/fuel, insurance and maintenance of a vehicle, or alternative commuting costs such as bus pass or fare. Also taken into consideration is distance of travel for the average student attending CCC.

Personal - This category includes miscellaneous personal expenses while in school.

What if these amounts do not truly reflect a student's COA? - Students can ask for an exception to increase their cost of attendance if they can provide documentation for the following reasons: computer (one-time only), dependent care, medical expenses, necessary travel costs for out-of-state students, program cost/supplies, and disability expenses.
